Botanical Art Workshops

with

Mali Moir

The Programme

Using the Burnley Gardens as inspiration, Mali starts the workshop by helping you to create a measured drawing that you shade to a tonal drawing. Then you'll try painting with watercolour pencils.

This is a special opportunity for FOBG members and friends.

About Mali: Mali is an accomplished artist and graduate of Burnley.*

After horticulture, Mali studied botanical art and went on to work as the botanical illustrator at the Royal Botanic Gardens. She now exhibits her work and runs botanical art classes.

She can cater for all levels of expertise, from the "I really can't draw" to "I need some help with this".
