

Invite you to an illustrated talk on ZOOM by

Dr Paul Kertes

Thursday 26th November 2020
7 for 7.30pm

Successful Garden Photography

Paul's presentation aims to help you improve your garden, plant and flower photography skills. He will cover technical aspects of photography relevant to gardens, as well as the more formal approach to garden photography. There will be many examples of garden and plant images taken by Paul and by other photographers, to help illustrate the beauty and variety of garden design and various photographic approaches.

Paul, a retired Cardiologist is now a freelance photographer with diverse interests in Travel, Portrait and Garden Photography. You can see his work at www.pkphotography.com.au or on Instagram @pk____photography.

Time: 7 pm 'drinks, nibbles and a chat' 7.30 for the talk in the comfort of your own home!

Cost: Free – please consider making a small donation via our website
